

your trusted
human partner
in a technology
driven world.

IT recruitment. consulting. projects. outsourcing.

Our clients love us. Inavero has recognized us for the last five years with its “Best in Staffing” award for distinction in customer satisfaction. We’re among less than 2 percent of staffing firms with satisfaction scores high enough to earn this title.

your needs are diverse.

Technology and data enable us to be more proactive, creating more time to learn your business and define your most critical requirements. The required talent, the duration of assignment, your organization's internal capabilities and your desire to retain or relinquish control will influence the type of service delivery model needed.

we offer flexibility.

On the chart to the right, you will see how our technology solutions help solve business challenges. From the traditional options—staff augmentation, permanent placement, outsourcing, fixed priced projects and consulting engagements—to our Managed Resource Program (MRP) which offers the benefits of each offering through a flexible management solution.
